

PRESS RELEASE

The American Quarter Horse Foundation 2012 Scholarship Application is Now Available

Completed applications are due December 1, 2011

2012 AQHF Scholarship Application is now available online. If you or a member you know is interested in receiving a scholarship, please be sure to share this information.

The American Quarter Horse Foundation provides financial assistance to members of the American Quarter Horse Association and American Quarter Horse Youth Association through general, racing, career path and state or regional scholarships. Eligibility of applicants is based on the individual scholarship criteria and requirements provided for each scholarship offered through the Foundation. A complete list of criteria is located within the 2012 Scholarship Guidelines.

Scholarship applicants must submit a completed application, official transcript and letters of reference. Students applying for state or regional scholarships must also submit proof of affiliate membership. State and regional scholarships are currently available for Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Indiana, Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi, Nebraska, New York, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Texas. All application materials must be postmarked by December 1, 2011 in order to be eligible.

Recipients are selected based on academic merit, financial need and American Quarter Horse involvement, as well as applicant's leadership and communication skills.

For more information, please visit our website at www.aqha.com/foundation or call us at (806) 378-5040.

LETTER/MEMO

Dear Friends:

As a key contact for AQHA's youth members, we wanted to take a moment to share with you an important scholarship opportunity available through the American Quarter Horse Foundation. Feel free to share this information with your youth members through meetings, newsletters and your affiliate website.

The Foundation provides financial assistance to members of the American Quarter Horse Association and American Quarter Horse Youth Association through general, racing, career path and state or regional scholarships. Eligibility of applicants is based on the individual scholarship criteria and requirements provided for each scholarship offered. A complete list of criteria is located on our website within the 2012 Scholarship Guidelines.

Scholarship applicants must submit a completed application, official transcript and letters of reference. Students applying for state or regional scholarships must also submit proof of affiliate membership. State and regional scholarships are currently available for Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Indiana, Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi, Nebraska, New York, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Texas.

All application materials must be postmarked by December 1, 2011 in order to be eligible. Recipients are selected based on academic merit, financial need and American Quarter Horse involvement, as well as the applicant's leadership and communication skills.

For more information, please feel free to visit our website at www.aqha.com/foundation or call us at (806) 378-5040.